Details

With the stresses and strains of organising a wedding and a hen party, who doesn't need a little pampering? We can arrange for a beautician to come to your location and provide a range of treatments for the hens. So all you have to do is pour yourself a glass of fizz and decide which shade of nail polish best suits your outfit!

A qualified and experienced beautician will come to your venue/home and provide the hens with treatments as you enjoy yourselves. You will need to choose which type of treatments you want before booking so that we can work out how long your pamper party will be and how many beauticians you require. As a guide 8-10 girls will need 3 hours, depending on treatments, with one beautician which works out as little as £18pp.

The choice of treatments includes:

- Mini manicures
- Mini pedicure
- Facial
- Indian head massage

Other treatments may be available on request.

Price:

From £65 per beautician per hour

For extra pampering why not hire one or two of our butlers to serve the drinks?
